

Club Directory Spring 2020

For questions or support regarding clubs, contact Student Engagement and Leadership.
340 E 24th St, 1st Floor. Office hours: Mon. - Fri. from 9am - 5pm. Email: clubs@sva.edu

Asian American Student Union

sva.aasu@gmail.com

The Asian American Student Union promotes Asian American awareness and education, encouraging our culture within the SVA community. We will celebrate our diverse Asian backgrounds from all over the world with fun, informative and social events. All are welcome to join us!

Black Student Union

svabsu@gmail.com

Empowers, unites and shares knowledge among those who identify with the African Diaspora – the global communities that have resulted by descent from the historical migrations of Africans. All are welcome to join the conversation!

Cartoon Allies

Cartoonallies@gmail.com

Unites students with a shared love for comics and cartoons. Its mission is to foster a spirit of camaraderie among cartoonists of all majors while strengthening ties to the larger cartoon sphere. Cartoon Allies has tables at multiple major conventions and hosts the annual comics festival Fresh Meat. It also provides SVA students with access to professional guest lectures and panels related to the professional cartooning career path.

Chinese Student Organization

csocsosvasva@gmail.com

Is a cultural club that provides a place for students to come together to develop and promote Chinese culture.

Dance Club

crownroyals@yahoo.com

Expressing body language through music by learning dance choreography together and gathering people with similar interests

Dungeons and Dragons

jmadera@sva.edu

The D&D Club will host game sessions as well as workshops to help you build characters, develop settings and cultivate your dungeon master skills. From experienced DMs to total newcomers - all are welcome!

Figure Drawing Club

figuredrawingclubsva@gmail.com

Aims to build a community of artists (all majors invited) who are interested in getting together to improve their drawing ability and build stronger bonds with their fellow students.

Film Club: Part II

lolateru-olagbegijr@sva.edu

We will screen and have discussions on a diverse array of films from around the world. All opinions are welcome. Students may also showcase their own short films if they want too. Film will be a zone to chill and chat about cinema.

Furry SVA

furryclubsva@gmail.com

Is an inclusive club for everyone to enjoy a safe place to talk about fursonas, fursuits, history and more.

International Film Club

thalim@sva.edu

Explore World Cinema. Activities includes screening, discussion regarding different films

Korean International Student Association

coh3@sva.edu

KISA is a club that allows students to engage Korean culture and connect students to share their New York life at SVA and communicate as an artist.

La Bodega

SVABodega@gmail.com

Provides an opportunity to learn and appreciate Latino/Hispanic culture through games, music and food. Its aim is to bring not only Latino/Hispanic students at SVA together but also to promote the culture and inspire their own personal projects.

LGBTQ SVA

queersvaclub@gmail.com

Provides students with a community space to share LGBTQ experiences with fellow students, educational resources related to queer culture and safe sex and a platform for students to be activists within the community. Activities will consist of regular group meetings, organized events and informative presentations.

Music Club

svamusicclub@gmail.com

Provides an opportunity for members to share and discuss music and attend music events.

SVA COS

eliu7@sva.edu

Is a club for students to enjoy the art of cosplay. We'll discuss cosplans, prop making, sewing, styling wigs, makeup, cosplay conventions, etc. We will also organize cosplay groups!

SVA Gaming Guild

sva.tgg@gmail.com

Offers members the opportunity to come together and play and discover different tabletop games. Meetings will include instruction on game-design technique and self-publishing using crowdfunding.

SVA Horror Society

myturalde@sva.edu

Is a society of students who come together and watch horror films because they love the genre or want to learn more about it.

SVA Zine Club

svazineclub@gmail.com

The SVA Zine club will explore all things zines! Zines are small, self-published booklets of art, writing or well- anything! We will learn about zines, make mini-zines and ultimately make one large collective zine per semester in this club! For updates and more info, check us out on Twitter and Instagram.

Taxidermy Club

ndelcastillo@sva.edu

Provides a unique opportunity to practice and learn about a lesser known art form. This club aims to dispel taxidermy's reputation as a cruel practice by educating it's members about the process of bringing animals back to life and preserving their beauty after death.

UNICEF-SVA

svaunicef@gmail.com

An approved organization based in SVA. The club will work with a year-long curriculum that empowers students to educate themselves about global humanitarian issues with educational resources and hands-on activities, including fundraising, travel and more.

Veterans Coalition of Arts

nwoods-wells@sva.edu

Is a collective of veteran-artists whose work reflects their personal experiences as a way to shape their artistic practices.

Women in Animation

jstagnari@sva.edu

Women in Animation aims to inspire and motivate young female students in the community as well as create opportunities to learn about the industry from the talented women who know it best through various workshops and events.

FUNDED BY:

The logo for VASA, featuring the word "VASA" in a bold, green, sans-serif font. The letter "V" is stylized with a purple shadow or outline, and the letter "A" also has a purple shadow or outline.